Notes from the June 8, 2006 Roundtable Meeting

After a busy networking session, with Made-In-Tennessee snacks, facilitator Harding Aslinger, UT-CIS, started off the meeting with a brief history of the Roundtable. The Roundtable participants introduced themselves, then Harding introduced Mr. Steve Patrick, TWRA Region 2 Manager for a discussion of the impacts of urban growth on the habitats of wildlife. There were thirty-two who signed in for the meeting making attendance comparable to recent meetings at other locations. The attendee list is included below.

Lori Munkeboe, TDEC-OEA Director, and Jan Compton, TDEC-OEA Johnson City Environmental Coordinator discussed the Performer Sustainability Challenge Commitment project. They emphasized that this is voluntary and other project proposals would be welcomed. General discussion included a suggestion that proposed projects be aligned with the Governor's environmental priorities for the State. Comments from Performers included suggestions that the three projects put forth during the meeting be identified as examples of the types of projects to be proposed to the PLRP. Additionally, it was suggested that a set of formal project criteria be established that would be applicable to all projects. Lori indicated that comments sent to her within two weeks would be addressed in the next draft proposal to the Performer Level Review Panel.

Diane provided a brief overview of the TP3 Performer Ceremony at the Bridgestone Firestone facility in Morrison. The Governor and three (!) Department Commissioners attended the celebration. The event was front-page news on the TDEC website for the following week.

Dr. Jack Barkenbus with UT Energy - Environment Resources Center, indicated that 23 higher education facilities participated in the conference held at Fisk University. A retreat is scheduled for June 19th at the University of the South at which time a discussion will be held to determine the possibility of forming a state-wide coalition to promote sustainability at higher education facilities. Check out the topics presented to the March 2006 Conference for Tennessee Higher Education: Environmental Sustainability and Compliance by visiting the HE Conference website: http://www.vanderbilt.edu/Green_Campus_Conference/Presentations.htm

Jan mentioned the website for the East Tennessee Environmental Conference and that presentations made at the conference are now available on the website: <http://www.tnenvironment.com>.

Lori presented Donovan Grimwood the first TP3 Partner level certificate for the Household category. Visit http://state.tn.us/environment/ea/tp3/tp3_members.shtml to see the list of TP3 members and link to Grimwood Household Success Story.

Harding facilitated the process of inviting new members of the TP2R Planning Team. He and Emily Saunders have "rolled off" the team: Many Thanks and Best Wishes to both of them as they embrace new opportunities!

Tennessee Pollution Prevention Roundtable
Thursday, June 8, 2006
9:00-12:00 Central Time
TWRA Region 2 Building, Ellington Ag Campus
Nashville, Tennessee

New members of Planning Team are Sandra Graves with JTEKT, Pat Lynch with Calsonic Kansei, Judy Takats with Wildlife Fund, and Don Stone with UT CIS. Diane Scher, Ann Olsen and Karen Grubbs will remain on the planning team.

The next TP2R meeting is scheduled for 9:30 on September 14 at Montgomery Bell State Park, just prior to the opening of the Cultivating P2 Conference. This will be an abbreviated meeting--agenda item suggestions are welcome.

Diane provided the group with an update on the September 14 & 15 P2 Conference plans. The program agenda may be found at the conference website: http://state.tn.us/environment/ea/tp3/tp3_p2conference2006.shtml and more information and registration-exhibit-sponsorship forms will be posted soon.

Walker Harmer with Marvin Doors and Windows and Doug Dulaney with James H. Quillen VA Medical Center made presentations as part of their reviews for Performer status, which were held after the close of the TP2R meeting. Congratulations to our newest TP3 Performers!

Dodd Galbreath with the TN Department of Agriculture provided a guided walking Tour of Erosion Control Practices at Ellington Agricultural Campus. The group was pleased to see the many varied demonstrations of water retention and erosion control practices and structures.

The September meeting will be in conjunction with the P2 Conference on September 14 and the December meeting is planned for Jackson at Delta on December 7 (Pearl Harbor Day). Let the Planning Team know if you would be interested in a tour of the Delta facility.

Performer Level Review Panel Meeting Brief Summary

Two new members were added top Performer level – Marvin Window and Doors of Ripley and James A. Quillen VA Medical Center of Mountain Home. Passing the annual Maintaining Performer evaluations were JTEKT of Vonore and Centennial High School of Franklin. Delta Faucet of Jackson was tabled for review at next meeting.
